RE: Notes on Negotiations with Jim Gordon

DATE: June 30, 1983

1. Amount of compensation - will probably be around $25,000 taking off $2,000 to put into some kind of IRA account. Waiting for information from bank to finalize details.
2. Yes, Jim will be affiliated with the foundation directly through a grant running approximately four years, at which time the whole process will be evaluated then.
3. Jim does not want to become involved in the finances of the foundation, deciding about projects, etc. That will not be necessary. He will only be involved in his own finances.
4. His true spiritual calling will be lecturing, writing and eventually healing. The writing will come first and foremost, with possibly two lectures a year. One at SUN and one at Coptics. For more lecturing, later on - decisions will have to be made as to travel arrangements, stipends, and bookings. All will be handled through the auspices of the foundation.
5. As to the amount of productivity expected - Jim will start sending copies as soon as possible of material he has so far. It was mentioned that possibly Kaye could help in organizing and editing, and typing material. Jim has some research to do at the University of Texas into the Indian literature. He has someone to help him with this but this will help with getting in touch with some of the masters on the other side who can help with furnishing material for his book(s). When he is not writing, in other words, he will be researching or meditating to get the energy in focus. This he will be keeping u informed about.
6. As far as giving the foundation credit for this work, yes, this is going to be required because the foundation will publish the work(s) and will be one of the major goals of the foundation in the years to come.
7. We are shooting for a September 1 starting date. Further details to be worked out when Jim is here July 11, 12 and 13.
8. Jim is currently paying his own health insurance. Is this something we could pick up for him as an employee of the foundation?
9. Also, will he putting in another phone line under an assumed name so we can reach him most times - always open. " L. Dailey
